PRESS RELEASE – FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

12-1-2011

For one weekend only, the Agoura Hills / Calabasas Community Center and HALO Performing Arts Academy, Inc. proudly present Les Miserables School Edition with special arrangement by MTI. This international smash-hit may be the most popular musical in the world! Victor Hugo's epic story recounts the struggle against adversity in early 19th century France. An emotional tale of love, conviction, and self-determination, Les Miserables reminds us all that "Even the darkest night will end and the sun will rise." With pieces like "Do You Hear the People Sing?", "Stars," "On My Own," "Bring Him Home," and "I Dreamed A Dream," it will inspire the passion and song within us all...

The show stars talent from all of Conejo Valley, through Ventura, across Santa Clarita and down to Los Angeles, with its core talent mostly from Calabasas, Westlake Village, and Newbury Park. Director/ Producer Angelique Daugherty of Calabasas and Music Director, Susan Truworgy-Calkins are extremely proud of the cast of phenomenal performers which includes Lexi Greene as Eponine (Oaks Christian), David White as Valjean (Ventura), and Savannah Fisch of Camarillo as Cosette. Hailing from Newbury Park is Ben Braus playing Enjolras, Jake DiFebo as Thenardier, and Matthew Case in the role of the Bishop. Rounding out this amazing cast of 25 are our youngest cast members, Jocelyne Daugherty of Calabasas and Abigail Thompson of Westlake Village, sharing the role of Young Cosette.

Please join us at the Madrid Theater in Canoga Park for this brilliant musical phenomenon you won't want to miss! Choose one of these four amazing productions: Friday, January 6 at 7:30pm, 2 shows on Saturday, January 7 at 2pm & 7:30pm, and Sunday, January 8 at 2pm. 21622 Sherman Way; Canoga Park, CA 91303.
